“Only an uncaused cause could cause the universe to exist.”

Jonathan Cahn

In The Book of Mysteries, Story #83, “The Impossibility of Existence,” Jonathan Cahn discusses the improbability of our existence. Science, logic and reason, he says, all agree that, “Nothing can exist without a cause behind it.” But since we do exist, there must be a Cause beyond the physical world - an uncaused Cause - who is responsible for the universe and everything in it.
